

Equal Opportunity Policy

Rationale:

- The Victorian Equal Opportunity Act 2010 makes it unlawful to discriminate against a person on the basis of the following attributes: - age, disability, industrial activity, lawful sexual activity, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital, parental or carer status, physical features, political beliefs or activity, pregnancy, race, religious belief or activity, sex, personal association (with a person who is identified by reference to any of the above attributes) or breastfeeding.
- The Act prohibits direct and indirect discrimination, makes it unlawful to sexually harass a person at work, promotes equality of opportunity between persons of different sex, age, marital status, race and other specified attributes and provides redress for those who have been subject to discrimination

Aims:

- To provide a working environment and school community that does not tolerate unlawful discrimination and provides equal opportunity for all.

Implementation:

- The community has agreed to live by our core values of Respect, Honesty, Trust, Care, Tolerance, and Quality Learning.
- Our school values diversity and provides equal opportunity for all.
- A staff member will be appointed as the Equal Opportunity representative at our school, and will be provided with professional development appropriate to the role.
- Over time, a number of staff will be Merit trained.
- This policy is to be read in conjunction with the Managing Diversity and Sexual Harassment policies of the school.
- The school's position as an Equal Opportunity employer and workplace will be communicated to the wider community via the newsletter.
- The school's policies and practices will be regularly reviewed to ensure consistency with the Victorian Equal Opportunity Act 2010).
- All staff members will be provided with a copy of this policy, and will be reminded of their rights and responsibilities in relation to the Victorian Equal Opportunity Act 2010.
- The Racial and Religious Tolerance Act 2001 prohibits amongst other things, practices such as racist graffiti, speeches or posters in public places, engaging in racist or religious vilification in public places, or making offensive racist comments in publications including the internet or email.
- Any complaints can be lodged with the Equal Opportunity representative, Principal, Regional Director, Merit Protection Boards or Equal Opportunity Commission.
- All complaints will be investigated promptly, confidentially, and with impartiality. All complaints will be managed in a manner consistent with DEECD 'Local Complaints Resolution Procedures' handbook.

Renewal and Approval:

This policy will be reviewed as part of the school's four-year review cycle
